Coastal Bend
COLLEGE

Coastal Bend College would like to thank all of the volunteers who help make the Lifelong Learning Academy a success.

Without the many volunteers helping with instructing classes and providing tours, the Lifelong Learning Academy would not exist. We appreciate our many community members who have volunteered their time and expertise that allow us to offer a variety of classes. Thank you, Lifelong Learning Academy volunteers, for proving that learning is a lifelong trait.

Ways to Volunteer:

- Submit/Recruit ideas for new classes
- Become a Lifelong Learning Academy instructor
- Spread the word

10/10: Kleberg Pregnancy Center

The Kleberg Pregnancy Center is a faith-based organization for individuals in unplanned pregnancies. Services offered include pregnancy tests, proof of pregnancy, vitamins, and unlimited ultrasounds. Earn While You Learn Parenting classes can be completed in-person or online where the client earns “baby bucks” to shop in the Baby Boutique. Abstinence classes are also presented to area school districts. Join us to learn how to get involved.

10/12: John E. Conner Museum.

This presentation will give a brief history of John E. Conner, Professor of History, and the Conner Museum, and our current progress in transforming the museum into a living, learning laboratory for the students and faculty of Texas A&M University-Kingsville and the surrounding communities. The presentation will also overview our current exhibits, displays, and recent activities.

Brought to you by: John E. Conner Museum, Texas A&M Kingsville

10/20: Weapons Demonstration

The museum team will provide an introduction to and demonstrations of a variety of Asian blade tools and weapons, from India to Japan to Indonesia.

10/25: Web Solutions Get Your Business Online and Succeed Online

So you want to start a business? That's great! Have been in business for a while but not seeing the level of success you had hoped for? Have you considered the most important employee for your business: your online presence? Without attention to this, your business may be closed before you know it. Learn a brief overview of how to start your online presence or polish the one you currently have. It is never too late!
